8:00 AM School Arrivals and Registration 8:30 AM Welcome and Introductions 9:00AM Marion Weinzweig, Holocaust Survivor Marion is one of the youngest living witnesses to the horrors of the holocaust. She was born in a ghetto, in German-occupied Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 10:05AM Snacks and ADL Peer Links Selfie Station
8:30 AM Welcome and Introductions 9:00AM Marion Weinzweig, Holocaust Survivor Morning Speaker Marion is one of the youngest living witnesses to the horrors of the holocaust. She was born in a ghetto, in German-occupied Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train
Welcome and Introductions 9:00AM Marion Weinzweig, Holocaust Survivor Marion is one of the youngest living witnesses to the horrors of the holocaust. She was born in a ghetto, in German-occupied Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train
Morning Speaker Marion is one of the youngest living witnesses to the horrors of the holocaust. She was born in a ghetto, in German-occupied Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1
Morning Speaker Marion is one of the youngest living witnesses to the horrors of the holocaust. She was born in a ghetto, in German-occupied Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 holocaust. She was born in a ghetto, in German-occupied Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 Poland. To save her life, her family gave her away to Christians when she was very young. She was hidden in convents and survived masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 masquerading as a catholic. She speaks about her own and her family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 family's experiences during the war, giving eye-witness testimony to being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 being Jewish during WW2, through the eyes of a child. 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1 9:35 AM Exploring facets of Identity – Meet me at the Train Break-out Session 1
Break-out Session 1
10:05AM Snacks and ADL Peer Links Selfie Station
Morning Break and Guest Arrivals
10:20 AM School-to-School Sharing of Best Practices
Break-out Session 2
11:05 AM Examining Bias – The Cards We're Dealt
Break-out Session 3
11:50 AM
Lunch
12:30 PM Ashton Skinner, ONE Community
Afternoon Speaker Ashton is the Transgender & Millennial Outreach Coordinator for ONE Community, Arizona's statewide LGBT advocacy group. As a young transgender person and a field organizer, Ashton works to connect the transgender community across Arizona, elevate the voices of Arizona's young leaders, and educate Arizonans about transgender identity, all in the name of advocating for LGBTQ rights. Ashton is an alumnus of Whitworth University, and a current graduate student of Social & Cultural Pedagogy at Arizona State University
1:00 PM Challenging Bias -Building Allies
Break-out Session 4
2:00 PM Taking Action – Call and Answer
Peer Links Closing
2:15 PM Peer Links students, staff and guests return to their communities Schools Depart and continue to make Arizona and our world a better place in perpetuity!